SOCIETY

Pretty "Dinner Party"

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Bush entertained on Monday evening with a charming "dinner party" at their beautiful bungalow, on Maple street. Potted plants were used artistically as decorations, and the effect was extremely pretty and attractive.

Covers were laid for thirty, and a delicious four-course luncheon was served, following the games, at the six small tables which had been arranged in library, hall and dining room.

The guests for the lovely informal affair were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Goff, Mr. and Mrs. David Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Poynter, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Pendleton, Mrs. Ella W. Rounsavall, Misses Sara Backner, Margie Cornell, Anna Coleman VanMeter, Calloway Squires, Julia Graves; Messrs. David Matlack, Chester Reese, Lewis and Andrew Hampton, Jeff Stewart, W. S. Duty, David McKinley and Stanley Nelson.

Delightful Social

A delightful social was enjoyed by the young people of the First Methodist church, in the Sunday school rooms on Monday evening. A varied literary program was rendered. Miss

J. E. Grubbs read an able paper, and Prof. White, of Kentucky Wesleyan College, gave a reading from O'Henry both of these features being highly entertaining.

During the social hour which followed, Miss Mary Peoples played a beautiful instrumental selection with her characteristic grace and skill, and Miss Lillian Jones rendered a charming vocal solo. A duet by Miss Christine Milam and Mrs. Walker Lancaster was inexpressibly sweet, and added greatly to the charm of the occasion.

Delicious hot chocolate from Phillips Drug Store was served, with dainty wafers and home-made candy.

Collier-Graves

The marriage of Miss Carrie Morgan Graves to Mr. Phil Collier was solemnized at the home of the bride, in this city, on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Eld. J. H. MacNeill officiating.

The bride wore a stylish blue tailored suit with American beauty hat and carried a cluster of American Beauty roses. The ring was borne by Miss Bessie Benton, sweet little daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. M. Benton, and Miss Sara Goodloe Benton held the bridal bouquet.

The home was artistically decorated in potted plants and carnations, and made an attractive setting for the simple ceremony, which the Rev. Mr. MacNeill impressively performed.

The groom is a traveling representative of the Ray Robinson and Curry Company, of Louisville, and is popular with everybody. His social standing is deservedly high, and his genial personality has made him extremely well regarded by all with whom he has business relations.

The lovely young bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Graves, of Scott county. Until recently she was a member of the efficient corps of teachers for the Winchester Public schools, where she was esteemed and loved by fellow-teachers and all her pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Collier left for a honeymoon trip in the south, after which they will be at home in this city.

Mr. Edwin Collier, of Louisville, brother of the groom, Mrs. J. H. Daniels and Miss Marders, of Lexington, were among the out-of-town guests in attendance at the wedding.

Pretty Double Wedding

A pretty double wedding was solemnized in Richmond on Tuesday evening when Miss Mary Peters was united in marriage to Mr. Bybee Kissinger and Miss Roberta Peters to Mr. George Lewis.

Mr. Kissinger is the younger son of Squire Ed. Kissinger. He has been employed with the firm of Zelner-Bloomfield Company, and by his attractive manner and courteous treatment of customers has won a wide and deserved popularity.

His bride is pretty and attractive, and is tenderly loved by a host of friends who extend best wishes. She possesses a charm of manner and a petite style of beauty, which have won admiration wherever she is known.

Mr. Lewis is a son of Mr. George Lewis, Sr., and is a popular and worthy young man. He is being congratulated by numerous friends on the loveliness of the young lady

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No Bileusness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give you a thorough cleaning inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due To Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Reflux Disorders are a positive, pleasant, and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Reflux Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and aid in producing a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea, or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons, or old folks. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Phillips Drug Store, 56 South Main street.
